GROOMING

Before you think about getting a puppy, read this essential information on selecting and training the right puppy for you.

The list below is comprised merely of registered breeders who are financial members of the STC Inc and may have puppies for sale. All breeders on this list are current members of Dogs NSW or other State Canine Councils and as such, they have agreed to abide by Canine Council Regulations, including the Code of Ethics Regulations

As a minimum, the Code of ethics requires

Puppies cannot be sold under eight (8) weeks of age

Puppies must be micro chipped and vaccinated.

The Breeder must provide the

1. Dogs NSW Pedigree Papers filled out to transfer ownership to you.
2. Vaccination Card
3. Microchip Register Change of Ownership Form filled out to transfer the microchip details to you.

The breeder must provide written details of all dietary and immunisation requirements.

In addition, the STC expects that responsible breeders will test for genetic issues such as vWd and CMO. As the purchaser you can ask for evidence of testing and the status of your puppy.

In providing you with this list, The STC Inc. makes no representations as to the reputation of any breeder or as to the soundness or suitability of any puppy you may decide to acquire from any breeder. You must satisfy yourself that any puppy you may decide to acquire is healthy, sound and meets your requirements. The STC Inc. accepts no responsibility in respect of the information contained in this list or in respect of any puppy that you may decide to acquire from any breeder on this list.

Are you after an Older Scottie?

Some people might find an older Scottie suits their lifestyle. No puddles on the floor or chewed shoes!

Talk to the breeders above who sometimes have older Scotties available. Scotties who perhaps just don't like to show.

Also contact the Scottie Rescue Honorary Rescue Officer, Jan on 0412 411424 or email rescue@stcinc.org. Details of the Scottie Rescue can be found at the Scottie Rescue page on this site.
