The Stars

@ Dog Lovers

WRITTEN BY
PETA COBB, SCOTTIE MUM

Scottie Ladies, Three from South West Sydney, were off to the Scottish Terrier Breed Stand at The Dog Lover's Festival at Homebush.

I set off in my trusty old Corolla Hatch with my boy 'Morgan Stark' to pick up Jess. Jess was in her tartan skirt, with a blue Scottie on her top, and of course, picked up her boy 'Aleister' (one of Morgan's brothers). Caffeine in tow, we pick up Jaede on the way with her 13-year-old Scottie boy 'Angus' staying at home, as he had not been very well of late*.

Jaede in her awesome black and yellow Scottie t-shirt being club colours, iced latte in hand, and off we go. The best I could do was yellow and black nails with Scottie decals. Three ladies and two Scotties pups and 'Angus' in our heart, full to the brim in my hatchback, drive full of happy Scottie talk, to Olympic Park.

We walk across to the Festival, with 'Morgan' in the puppy pram barking the entire way and people stopping for 'Aleister' pats. We get inside pick up our official passes and for the puppers, through stage right we head to the Scottish Terrier Breed Stand. We relieve the morning volunteers, Cyndi, Colin, Sharon, and Terry with their Scotties, 'Harvey', 'Magnus', and 'Tilly'.

Susie joins us with her Wheaten Scottie, 'Mia' (cousin to Alei and Morgan) Cyndi hands over the tattoo instructions and Scottie supplies, we organise the pups, get them settled and we are off meeting and greeting the public Scottie fans.

Jaede and I called on our many years of retail training and were putting stickers and tattoos on the grateful people. Susie and Jess answering all of the Scottie questions while the masses were patting, and taking photos of 'Mia' and 'Aleister'. Susie was the official spokesperson and 'Mia' was the official Scottie for Pat-a-Pooch and the Breeders Talk on Centre Stage.

My 'Morgan' was overwhelmed at the start and was resting. I brought him out after a while to meet the fans. He was so good. I think he didn't want to be outdone by his cousin and brother. 'Aleister' was up for the attention for the entire shift. 'Mia' being part of all the official activities took it all in her stride. All three were up for pats and having their photo taken for the rest of the day. There were sometimes four and five people deep at the stand to get up close and personal with our Scottie stars.

People shared their stories of having Scotties, asking all the questions, how old are they, how big do they get, do they shed, how often do you groom them? When the fans saw 'Mia' who is a Wheaten, they didn't realize they came in other colours. It was so good to have the six breed colours on a poster behind us to refer to.

Jaede reminded me I had made Scottie Shaped Chocolate Pops for the humans, which I wanted to also give to the morning volunteers, sorry I was overwhelmed and forgot.

We ended up putting them out as a freebie, with the books and brochures to the fans, and some people then gave a donation because they received free items, which was nice.

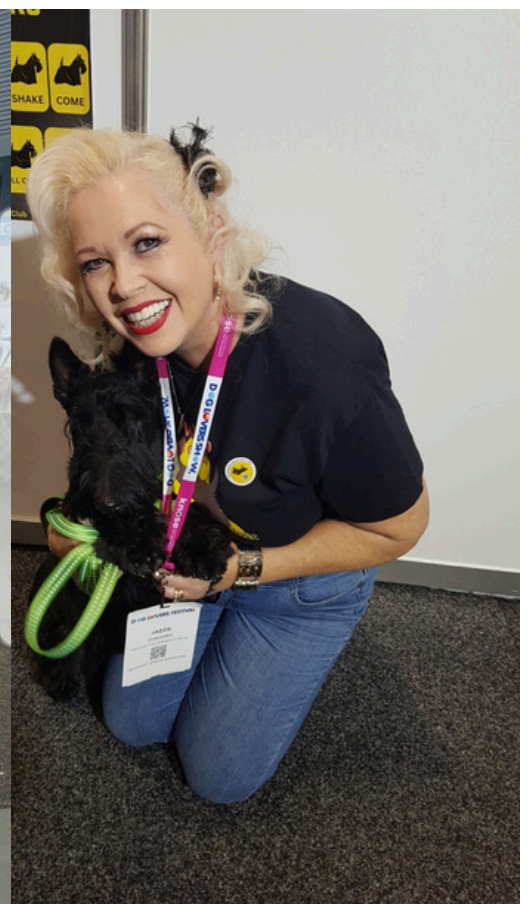

As the day came to a close all four weary humans and three tired Scotties wandered back to the car park.

Susie was quite surprised all five of us were together in my small Scottie chariot. It was a big day, but a fun day. It was a privilege to share our pups and knowledge of having Scotties. We loved that people were so genuinely interested in the breed.

*Sadly Jaede and her husband, had to say goodbye to their precious Scottie boy, 'Angus' last week. They undertook the ultimate kindness and held his paw as he went over the Rainbow Bridge.

THANK YOU
